ROGERS SUGAR ANNOUNCES RATIFICATION OF COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT AT MONTRÉAL REFINERY

Montréal, Canada, June 11, 2026 – Rogers Sugar Inc. (the “Company” or “Rogers Sugar”) (TSX: RSI) today announced that “Le Syndicat des Travailleuses et Travailleurs de Sucre Lantic – CSN”, the main bargaining unit representing the majority of employees at its Montréal refinery has ratified a new five-year agreement.

The Montréal refinery employs about 240 unionized workers. Over the past few months, the Company and the union have met on several occasions with the objective of reaching a new collective agreement. The previous agreement expired on May 31, 2026.

“The ratification of this five-year agreement is a positive outcome for everyone at the Montréal refinery,” said Mike Walton, President and Chief Executive Officer of Rogers Sugar. “We are committed to a stable and productive working environment, and this agreement reflects that shared interest. This new agreement will anchor our continued commitment to our customers and support the completion our LEAP project, strengthening our position as a leading supplier to the Canadian food industry.”
